

Please do not allow the banking association to win the battle of the no call list. The last two years on the no call list have been wonderful and uphold my privacy.